

NCCIA

NC Captive Insurance Association

The NCCIA Board of Directors at its December meeting elected officers for 2017, added a new member to the board and conducted other business. Elected Chairman for 2017 was Jeremy Colombik of Raleigh, President of Management Services International. He succeeds Jesse Coyle of the Webb & Coyle Law Firm based in Aberdeen. Elected to the Board for her first term is Wendy Knight an executive with Novant Health, a large regional health system headquartered in Winston Salem. (See her bio on the Leadership Page).

Molly Ferrante of Energi was elected as Vice Chairman, while Dan Reppert of Financial Risk Analysts continues as Treasurer, and Jonathan Reich of Womble Carlyle will serve as Secretary. NCCIA President Thomas Adams said, “The associations Board continues the tradition of a strong Board of Directors that is well representative of the captive industry. I look forward to a productive year under the leadership of Jeremy Colombik.”

Two of the association’s founders, Alex Webb and Lane Brown are rotating off the board.
